On Tuesday, 8/19, 2014, my partner (Officer Anderson#127) and I (Officer Nam #131) were working as contracted, uniformed security officers for the Hollywood Business Improvement District (H.B.I.D.) / Andrews International 6801 Hollywood Boulevard Hollywood, CA. 90028 (323) 465-0122. On the above date and time, my partner (Officer Anderson #127) and I (Officer Nam #131) received a radio call: "Possible Battery occurred at BLO" located at 6250 Hollywood Blvd. We responded to the location and were met by Boy 6, Ofcr Ramirez and Ofcr Trujillo. My partner Ofcr Anderson interviewed the victim who stated the following:

She observed a male wearing a grey jacket and grey pants (jump suit) sitting on the patio chair reserved for customers just outside of the business front door. The victim asked the subject to please move from the chair because it was for paying customers only. The subject stood up and spat in the victim's face. Victim became afraid and called the BID office for assistance. After receiving a signed PPA authority, we canvassed the area for the subject. My partner Anderson, observed a possible subject (later identified as Wichmann, Simeon DOB:04/30/80) sitting on the bus bench at the south west corner of Sunset Bl and Gordon Ave (6000 Sunset Blvd). Footbeat 3 with Ofcr Mooney and Melvin responded to the location with the victim to possibly identify the subject. Victim observed the subject at the bench and stated that was he that committed the battery.

We placed the subject under private person's arrest per 837 Penal Code (Private Person's Arrest for 242 PC Battery) and relinquished the subject to LAPD custody.

LAPD Unit 6A79, LAPD Ofcr Miller (37275) and Ofcr Egnasio (39809) responded to our location and interviewed the victim who advised the LAPD officers she wanted to make a private person's arrest for the crime of battery.
